Report 2007

The Barents Regional Youth Council

Our mission

We will strengthen the youth cooperation in the Barents region and empower young people to actively participate in the shaping of the Barents region

Introduction

At its meeting on 5 September 2001, the Barents Regional Council decided to draw up a youth programme for the Barents Region. This was done at the direct request of the Barents Regional Youth Forum, BRYF, which was represented at the meeting and called for concrete action. The present programme is based on the conclusions from the Conference "Face the Future", which was held on 12-16 May 2001 in Tromsø, Norway. BRYF ended its work in 2003.

In 2003 The Norwegian ministry for children and family affairs allocated 1 mill NOK per year for two years to support multilateral youth projects in the region. The Norwegian Barents secretariat got the responsibility of managing the fund. A youth coordinator was employed and the extra resources made a broader implementation of the program possible. The funding has continued until today and a new programme is developed.

Background

The countries in the Barents region have many common challenges when it comes to youth issues and this invites to increased cooperation about these matters.

During an international youth seminar in Murmansk October 2003, the participants strongly signalled that young people want to participate more actively in the Barents cooperation. They concluded that the best way to ensure this would be to establish a new youth structure in the Barents cooperation, a council consisting of young people from the whole region.

Establishment

The establishment meeting for the Barents regional Youth Council (BRYC) was held in Kirkenes during the festival Barents Spektakel 2004.

The council consists of one youth representative from each county, oblast, republic and okrug in the region and one representative for indigenous youths. The 14 members of the council will work towards a strengthening of the youth cooperation in the Barents region.

The members are chosen by their county administration based on the following criteria: - He or she must have an age fitting the category "Youth" (over 18 and under 30 years) and speak English, have knowledge about youth issues in their region and be interested in international cooperation

Organisation

BRYCs secretariat is in the hands of the person responsible for the youth program at the Barents secretariat in Kirkenes. The Secretariat invites the members to the meetings, find suitable meeting dates and arrange travel and accommodation for the participants. The Barents Youth Cooperation Office (BYCO) in Murmansk have the responsibility to coordinate the participation of the representatives on the Russian side and make plans for travels, arrange visas and spread information BRYCs closest collaborator in the Barents cooperation is the Regional Working group on Youth Issues.

ACTIVITIES

Council meetings

The Barents Regional Youth Council with all representatives meets normally twice a year. In 2007 the meetings were held in Russia, Murmansk and Finland, Rovaniemi. The last meeting in the Barents Regional youth Council was held jointly with the Barents regional working group on Youth issues.

Meetings in the council in 2007:

Murmansk 22nd to 25th of March 2007 (enclosure 1) Annual meeting
Rovaniemi 14th of October 2007 (enclosure 2)

Training courses

In connection with the annual meeting in Murmansk in March there were arranged special training courses for the members of BRYC.

TRAINING COURSE FOR BRYCers IN MURMANSK

At the end of March 2007 the members of The Barents Regional Youth Council participated in a training course on how to write articles and press releases, presentation techniques and interview techniques.

The main focus for this course was information. The importance of professionally present projects, youth initiatives and ideas for others is crucial to get the necessary support from authorities and grant givers.

Today the importance of informing in a good way to reach the target group is important and the challenge is huge when the target group is young people. During the training seminar the BRYCers got an introduction in writing news articles for newspapers and websites and even published on www.barentsyouth.org. They all got a chance to do an interview in front of the camera and they all got a chance to see the interview on TV and got a feedback from the others.

The last day of the seminar the participants got a chance to visit a radio station and had interviews there. This was good exercises and very valuable. The radio reporter explained the nature behind interviews and important tricks to sound serious and avoid mistakes and traps.

The Council also arranged their annual meeting and carried out their first ordinary BRYC meeting for 2007. During the annual meeting they adopted a new action plan for 2006.

OSCE YOUTH FORUM 2007

On Monday the 5th of november 2007 it was time for the OSCE Youth Forum in Madrid, Spain. The Barents Regional Youth Council applied and was represented there. Sindre Wolf the former leader of BRYC took part in a group discussing: "Youth Role in Conflict prevention". This a copy of Sindre Wolfs Blog after the event:

A unified group of civil society

I have just come back from the OSCE Youth Forum in Madrid, and what a time I've had. This is not a travel blog, so all I'm saying about Madrid is:"beautiful".

Now, back to what I really want to write about, the forum. This was a gathering of 70-80 youth from ALL over europe, and some not from europe. We were divided into 6 different working-groups where I was in one discussing "Youth role in conflict-prevention". The results of the conference was "The Madrid Youth Declaration" which you can find in a link below.

Now, I've been to a couple of conferences before and chose my workinggroup on the basis of these conferences always discussing the same thing over and over. This, I thought, could atleast be a learning-experience as well.., I was right there.

This whole thing about always discussing the same thing has been my reason to sometimes say no to conferences, and I've always found it annoying that I couldn't use my time on something new. The conference in Madrid seemed good because: 1. Obviously, it was in Madrid. 2. People from nations I have never met were going. I thought I would experience something new. Alas, same dicussions even in my group with people from Georgia, Poland and Luxemburg. But I was still learning.

So, why are the same things taken up everywhere I go? I think the reason is that youth is one of the few really unified groups of civil society. There is a common understanding of what is important. Youth is often defined as a radical group wanting hugh changes, a group with total lack of perspective and in need of guidance to produce anything that is even close to being realistic. Some of these points might be true, but the fact is that youth tend to agree quite easily. The same things are often the most important. If you're from Norway, Moldova, Spain or Russia you still think that mobility is an important factor to to solve many of the challenges that are facing society...I have seen this becoming a main topic at youth forums since 2003.

So, youth from 18-30 years old (around 20% of the worlds populations) have agreed on this for 4-5 years, but why is it still a discussion? Why is it that a fifth of the worlds population needs to discuss visa-problems year after year? We produce paragraphs, statements, declarations etc at every conference, but who is reading them? Who uses these documents? I feel no one uses them, and that is why we end up adressing these things again and again.

Is a product from a youth forum something that will give actual political pull in decisionmaking processes? Doesn't seem so, because our documents end up nowhere.

I totally lost where I was going with this, but I feel I've gotten things off my chest. All in all I think the importance and results of these forums need to be communicated.

Board for BRYC

One contact person from each country, plus the indigenous representative are represented in a board for BRYC. The personal compositions board have differed in terms of the tasks, to ensure that the team always had interest in the particular task they are working on at the time. The board is elected every year during the annual meeting.

Meetings in the Board for BRYC 2007:

16. - 19. Juni 2007 Board meeting in Luleå, Sweden (enclosure 3)

Youth Initiatives 2007

BRYC is once a year responsible for one large youth arrangement. In 2007 the Youth Council focused on youth participation and took part in the preparatory work and the implementation of The Barents youth Seminar in Rovaniemi

BARENTS YOUTH SEMINAR IN ROVANIEMI WITH GREAT RESULTS

The 12th -15th of October 70 people from all parts of the Barents region gathered to discuss active young citizenships and diversity and examine the situation of young people in the Barents Region from different perspectives.

The participants were a mix of youth representing NGOs and adults from national, regional and local authorities responsible for youth issues. Youth researchers were also invited to take part.

The keynote speaker Mr Fredrik Beckman from Urkraft/OCN in Skellefteå gave the participants inspiration and motivation and made all believe that everything is possible. The participants also got a presentation about the Barents cooperation seen from a youth perspective by Petter Mahrs from OM Communications. The chaos pilot Thorsten Gejl from Proventor in Denmark was responsible for the process during the seminar and made everybody contribute in the idea development of different projects. All project ideas were presented during the final session and the organizers were very pleased with the results.

In addition to the development of projects like Barents extreme games, Cultural exchange, Barents TV, Tourism Destination Barents and Barents Builders the participants made some political statements. The political statements made during the seminar were summarised by a group consisting of one youth representative from each country and one for indigenous people. They will present the statements for the foreign ministers that will gather for the Barents Euro Arctic Council meeting in Rovaniemi the 14th of November.

The seminar had the under title "Youth in the Barents Region - a lottery win or bad luck?" and was organised within the framework of the Finnish Chairmanship of the Barents Euro-Arctic Council and in close cooperation with the Barents Regional Working Group on Youth Issues (RWGYI), the Barents Regional Youth Council (BRYC) and the Norwegian Barents Secretariat in Kirkenes.

BARENTS YOUTHS SPOKE TO THE MINISTERS

The Foreign ministers of the member countries in the Barents cooperation met for the 11th BEAC session in Rovaniemi the 15th of November. A delegation of 5 youths got the chance to speak directly to them on behalf of the youths in the region.

During the Barents Youth Seminar arranged in Rovaniemi in October, all participants contributed in making a message with some political statements to the Barents Council. Marit Puranen- Marjavaara from Sweden, Tumoas Aslak Juuso representing indigenous peoples, Olga Pokrovskaya from Russia, Stian Johansen from Norway and Iiris Jakola from Finland were elected to meet the ministers and pass forward the words from the youths.

The speech was applauded by the ministers and the foreign ministers underlined the importance of taking the youths opinion into account and facilitate youth cooperation in the region.

The speech as a whole:
"Dear foreign ministers,

We have an important message for you. Please ask yourselves this question: How do you want the Barents region to be in 20 years? An industrial desert where experts fly in and fly out or a prosperous region full of possibilities and active youth with different ethnic and national backgrounds. We want the people and especially the youth living in the Barents region to be regarded as the main assets for the development within the region. We are here representing many young people who are engaged and interested in the future of this region. But we are not only the future, we are the present.

We want to co-operate across the borders on projects and issues that will make our region grow: culture, entrepreneurship, education etc. You can ensure youth participation, youth initiative and development by providing non-bureaucratic funding-possibilities for multilateral youth projects – and this should be in the mandate for the International Barents Secretariat.

There are a lot of opportunities throughout the world. But we want to stay here. To make that happen:

Youth policy should be a part of the mandate for the International Barents Secretariat in the same way as for example culture, health and education.

We are talking about Barents co-operation in a global context. Communication is obviously an important part of co-operation. In order to communicate, we need the opportunity to learn each others languages. It is a severe challenge: for example in Murmansk there is no possibility to learn Barents languages in a good level. Another issue is transportation and logistic. Almost all our connections are going from North to South, more East-West-connections are necessary.

There is one matter that has been stressed many times but we choose to raise it again – it's visa regulations. Barents youth dream of getting easy and cheap visas for co-operation in the region.

Indigenous peoples still have rich and living cultures and ways of life. But their rights are not fully supported. Every state must secure the rights of indigenous peoples by ratifying the ILO-convention number 169 and by following the new UN-declaration of indigenous peoples.

We and our region have a huge potential. The Barents region need our competence and our knowledge. You have the power to improve young people's living conditions and working possibilities in the region. But we are the main resource of the Barents region. And we are not here today as a three minute youth alibi. We recognize the time we've been given but we want more: to take part in the decision making processes from a local level to your level.

Our answer to the question is clear. We choose a prosperous region. "

Information and other activities

The representatives of BRYC have informed local and regional NGOs in their Counties about larger Barents Youth events. The information flow has a great potential for improvement and all members are now building up their own list of addresses in their mailbox to be able to forward messages and links.

OTHER REPRESENTATIONS AND PRESENTATIONS

Sindre Wolf took part in the Barents Regional Committee meeting in Tromsø in September to inform about BRYC and the importance to support their work.

Halvard Rundberg, Sindre Wolf and Anne Silja Turi have taken part in 3 meetings for the preparatory group of Barents Youth Seminar that took place in Rovaniemi in October 2007. The meetings were held in Helsinki and the group consisted of representatives from the regional Working Group on Youth Issues

Olga Shaporeva and Iris Jakola took part in the Youth statement presentation for the Barents council in Rovaniemi in November 2007

Sindre Wolf took part in the OSCE Youth Forum in Madrid, Spain 5th of November 2007.

MAJOR CHALLENGES AND FUTURE PLANS

Turnover

The turnover among the members in BRYC is high due to the migration of youths out of the region. This creates a situation that makes it necessary for the counties to look for potential future members constantly. The different youth structures in the counties also make difficulties for recruitment of members. Some members are appointed while others are elected.

Information

More effort must be done to ensure the information flow to regional NGOs, politicians and media to show the activities within the youths sphere in Barents. The website www.barentsyouth.org has been developed in 2006 and was translated into Russian language during 2007.

Training

To increase the member's skills for international cooperation and coordination of activities, BRYC is arranging project management and leader training seminars. They also take part in courses arranged by others.

Special focus in 2008

BRYC will in 2008 focus on active citizenship and human rights continue to concentrate on getting closer cooperation with the other youth structures in the Barents region. BRYC will cooperate with the MR-dagera (Human right days) in Luleå in November and will be responsible for a workshop focusing on human rights in the Barents Region seen from a youth perspective.

Youth participation

The UNs Convention on the Rights of the Child states that children and youths have the right to be heard in all matters that concerns them. This demands that the adults take the responsibility to create the structures and arenas where this takes place.

The Convention acknowledges that children and youth have the right to express their opinions and to have those opinions heard and acted upon and that they have the right to take part in decisions. It is of major importance that we show that we take this seriously and that we show and act according to our attitudes whether it comes to rights of the child, human rights or equality of genders in the Barents cooperation.

Youth are a priority group in the Barents cooperation and it is about time that BRYC is invited to all the arenas where decisions are made- The Regional committee and the Barents regional council. Furthermore it is important that the youths have a vote there to make sure they have real influence and don't participate only as observers.

Environmental conference

During the Barents Days in Bodø 18th-21st of October

In Bodø, 80 youth from the different countries will meet to discuss what they want the politicians to do to protect the environment in order to make a good future for the young generation of the north.

The environmental problems in the Barents region are extensive. The fragile nature of the north is especially vulnerable to human activity and industrial interference, and it is important to provide the right steps to assure safe exploitations of our natural resources.

Oil and gas activity, nuclear waste, loss of the biodiversity, pirate fishing and the effects of the changing climate are all challenges which are to be taken seriously. The future of the north depends on how we protect and maintain the rich nature, and that's why environmental issues are of great concern to the youth in the Barents region.

In Bodø, 80 youth from the different countries will meet to discuss what they want the politicians to do to protect the environment in order to make a good future for the young generation of the north.

Nature and Youth will mainly invite members of the different environmental and political youth organizations in the region, but we are of course also interested in "independent" voices.

GÁVNNADEAPMI- Sámi Youth Gathering in Karesuando

Gávnnadeapmi is in the Finnish side of Karesuando 18th to 21st October 2007. During the gathering, Sámi youth from all parts of Sápmi get the opportunity to meet and discuss topics that are important to the Saami community.

The goal of this project is to gather youth that are over 18 years of age because they are in the phase of life where they choose what they are going to work with.

This kind of gathering gives the youth a chance to reach out and front their opinions in topics like culture, politics and the future in the Saami community.

The Saami youth organizations need youth that are idealistic and committed to work with topics concerning youth. The average age in Saami youth organizations is low. We hope that this project will engage older youth to participate in working for youth and to join the Saami youth organizations.

“Ragátáigi”. The mating –season is a reindeer-saami word for the time of the year that the gathering occurs. There are no happenings in the time of the year. We attend to fill this “gap” with a gathering that is ment only for youth.

Getting to the conference will not be a problem. There will be four busses going to Karesuando picking up people on the way.

They go from Östersund, Kirkenäs, Tromsö through Kiruna and from Oulu straight to Karesuando.
